Three passenger trains of the Southern Pacific of the Oregon and California division passed through Ogden at an early hour this morning chroute from Sacramento to Portland, Oregon. The detouring of these trains over the Harriman lines centering at Ogden is made necessary by the disastrous washouts that have occured between Sacramento and Red Bluffs where several hundred feet of the road bed and track have been washed away. It is expected the repairs will be completed within a week.
